Call to Worship

One: God invites us during this Ash Wednesday service to begin the journey of self-examination.

All: We reflect on those inner thoughts that distract us from our relationship with God and one another.

One: Let us release those distractions as we move forward on the path of hope and renewal.

All: In our worship, may we listen for God's voice to help guide and nurture our lives.

One: Thanks be to God for God's steadfast love within us.

*Processional Hymn (626) "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say"

Opening Prayer (unison)

God of love, we come before You in need of healing and renewed hope. We come because we believe that You are the One who helps us to refocus our lives and renew our dreams. Open us to Your love so we may once again serve You in joy. Help us this day to glow in the fullness of Your light and love. Amen.

Scripture Lesson Isaiah 58:1-12

Prayer for Grace (unison)

For times when we are too rushed to care, when we are too tired to bother, when we don't really listen, or when we act from motives other than love, God forgive us. When we do not feel the pain of others or ignore the needs of the helpless around us, God forgive us. On our Lenten journey, O God, remind us of Your vision as Your people. Help us to seek ways to meet the needs of others and renew our covenant of faith with You this day. Amen.
