Bells of Peace: WW1 Armistice "Ringing 100 Bells"

Call to Worship

One: 100 tolls of the bells on the 11th day, of the 11th month at the 11th hour in 1918 called out the end of World War I and today we mark the 100th Anniversary of Armistice Day.

All: We remember the 66,000 Canadians who sacrificed their lives and the 172,000 who were injured in this war to end all wars.

One: As we hear the 100 bells chime, we remember all the men, women and children who lost their lives due to wars past and present.

All: We remember people everywhere who struggle for freedom, justice and dignity.

One: Let us seek to bring peace, love and harmony to our hearts and to the earth this day.

*Processional Hymn (679) "Let There Be Light"

Prayer of Approach (unison)

Living God, as our thoughts turn to this Remembrance Sunday, we ask that You look with compassion on Your world, where war still flourishes and violence is commonplace. Move the hearts of men, women and children to replace feelings of hatred with sensitivity for others. Bring us closer to the day when war will become obsolete and peace will be a reality for all people. We pray in the hope of Jesus, the Peacemaker. Amen.

The Act of Remembrance

One: They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

we will remember them. We will remember them.

*The Last Post J. Liddle

*Minute of Silence

perpetual light shine on them.

All: And may their souls, through Your mercy, rest in peace forever. Amen.

*Placing of Poppies on Wreaths

(You are invited to come forward and place your poppy on the wreath as we sing the following songs.)

(684) "Make Me a Channel of Your Peace"

- 1 Make me a channel of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me bring your love;
where there is injury, your healing power,
and where there's doubt, true faith in you:

- 2 Make me a channel of your peace:
where there's despair in life, let me bring hope;
where there is darkness, only light;
and where there's sadness, ever joy.
O Spirit, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love with all my soul.

- 3 Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving to all that we receive,
and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

"Let There Be Peace on Earth" (sing 2 times)

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me;
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God our creator, children all are we;
Let us walk with each other, in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now,
With ev'ry step I take let this be my solemn vow;
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally
Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me. (repeat)

"Blowin' in the Wind" by Bob Dylan

How many roads must a man walk down
Before you call him a man?
Yes, 'n' how many seas must a white dove sail
Before she sleeps in the sand?
Yes, 'n' how many times must the cannon balls fly
Before they're forever banned?
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind,
The answer is blowin' in the wind.

How many times must a man look up
Before he can see the sky?

Yes, 'n' how many ears must one man have Before he can hear people cry?

Yes, 'n' how many deaths will it take till he knows
That too many people have died?
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind,
The answer is blowin' in the wind.

How many years can a mountain exist
Before it's washed to the sea?
Yes, 'n' how many years can some people exist
Before they're allowed to be free?

Yes, 'n' how many times can a man turn his head,
Pretending he just doesn't see?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind,
The answer is blowin' in the wind.
